

Inhalt

Farhad Khosrokhavar The new European Jihadism and its avatars	1
Ekaterina Stepanova Regionalization of violent jihadism and beyond: the case of Daesh	30
Rüdiger Lohlker Fundamentalism and the Internet	56
Fethi Benslama The subjective impact of the jihadist offer	75
Markus Riedenauer Fundamentalismus als „kritische Reaktion“? Hypothesen zu einer Archäologie des Fundaments	86
Jakob Helmut Deibl Interpretation und Bündnis. Anregungen von Klaus Heinrich und Gianni Vattimo für eine nicht-fundamentalistische Re-Interpretation des christlichen Narrativs	107
Hans Gerald Hödl Reversed racism: fundamentalist genealogies in African-American religions	131
Mika Lassander and Peter Nynäs Contemporary fundamentalist Christianity in Finland: the variety of religious subjectivities and their association with values	154
Yaakov Ariel Biblical narratives, messianic hopes and religious radicalism: Jewish fundamentalism in our time	185
Gerhard Langer Learning instead of fighting: the impact of rabbinic theory on Jewish identity	201

Vasilios N. Makrides
Orthodox Christian rigorism: attempting to delineate a multifaceted phenomenon 216

Martin Rothgangel
Fundamentalism as a key topic for religious education. Observations from a Protestant perspective 253