

Andrea Lehner-Hartmann

Andrea Lehner-Hartmann is Professor of Religious Education and Catechetics at the Faculty for Catholic Theology and at the Center for Teacher Education at the University of Vienna. She teaches and investigates the field of religious education in plural societies, violence in families and schools, gender in (religious) education, subjective theories, interdisciplinary subject didactics. Recent publications: Religiöses Lernen. Subjektive Theorien von ReligionslehrerInnen (Stuttgart 2014); ed. with Thomas Krobath and Regina Polak: Anerkennung in religiösen Bildungsprozessen. Interdisziplinäre Perspektiven (Göttingen 2013).