

Markus Riedenauer

Markus Riedenauer studied philosophy, catholic theology and history at universities in Munich, Vienna, Rome. He obtained a doctorate at the University of Vienna and a Habilitation at the Goethe Universität, Frankfurt. His main research areas are: history of philosophy, particularly ancient and medieval, practical philosophy, philosophy of religion and philosophical theology.