Matthew L. Becker (Ed.)

Nineteenth-Century Lutheran Theologians

Active Lutheran/Protestant theologians between 1799 and the First World War

This collection of essays, a companion volume to the book, Twentieth-Century

Lutheran Theologians (Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 2013), examines important nineteenth-century figures from the perspective of contemporary European and North-American scholars. Contributors aim to describe a give thinkers life and vocation and how that persons work continues to impact theology today.

Each essay provides an overview of the life and central ideas of a key

Lutheran/Protestant theologian who has had a significant impact on theological reflection down to the present. The focus here is on those thinkers who were active between 1799 and the First World War.

Matthew L. Becker is associate professor of theology at the University of Valparaiso.
